Half a Million Rohingya Muslims Displaced

The U.N. says that 123,000 Rohingya Muslims fled to Bangladesh in the last 10 days. There are another 400,000 Rohingyas trapped in forests and mountains as the military continues its attacks from the ground and the air.

UN says that Burma continues to block the delivery of food, water and medicine to the Rohingya. Satellite images obtained by Human Rights Watch prove over 100 Kilometers have been set ablaze. We must stop these genocidal attacks by Burmese military.

Your urgent action, along with your dua, can really save lives.

World Wide Rallies on Sept 16 2017:

As the UN general assembly reconvenes in mid-September, Burma Task Force is calling for a day of worldwide silent demonstrations to protest the genocide of Rohingyas. The demonstrations will be held on Saturday, September 16.

If you are, or would like to, organize a demonstration in your city or locality contact us: info@burmamuslims.org. We will help with resources!

Talking Points:

- Rohingyas Muslims are indigenous people living in their ancestral lands.
- They were always citizens until 1982 when their citizenship was taken away.
- Seven Nobel laureates say they are subject to slow genocide.
